My Feelings about Han Ji-sung

I find Han as a role model for loads of people but for me He's shown that we should follow our dreams rather than overpass them or follow your parents dreams for their child and it also says you should never and I mean never give your dream up for anyone or anything standing in your way.

I feel strong about this because its moral rules in life you should believe in what you want to be and not let anyone take it away from you.

Han shows his willingness to show others through hard times and don't do anything you don't want to nobody can force you to do something and He let's you know that your never alone.

Han is Han Ji-Sung's stage name also named as Hannie. Han is really famous in the Kpop World as He's good at English, Korean, and Malay. Han treats His member's like brothers.
